AID FOR HANDICAPPED SEEN IN MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BY PALSY FOUNDATION

With the establishment of a resident center for cerebral palsied as their goal, members of the Cerebral Palsy Foundation of San Diego opened their 1952 membership campaign this week.

Since the organizing of the project in 1946, commendable prograss has been made in education, social and therapy opportunities for handicapped children. Present plans include a sheltered workshop for adult handicapped.

If your child were a spastic, you would do everything in your power to help him overcome his handicap. Perhaps the word "Spastic" is a new one to you. Spastic Paralysis, or cerebral palsy, is one of the most cruel cripplers known to man.

Through the ages these sufferers have been known by their in-coherent speech, tense indrawn hands and stumbling feet. Because of their appearance they were generally believed to be retarded mentally. They were considered hopeless and many led bleak lives in back bedrooms—to escape the pitying eyes of a world which did not understand.

Today the spastic need no longer be neglected. Seventy per cent can be educated to lead useful lives, a fact that is proven daily at the training center. A one dollar membership will be gratefully received by the Cerebral Palsy Foundation of San Diego, Inc., P. O. Box 1092, San Diego 12, Calif.

TEENER... of the week.

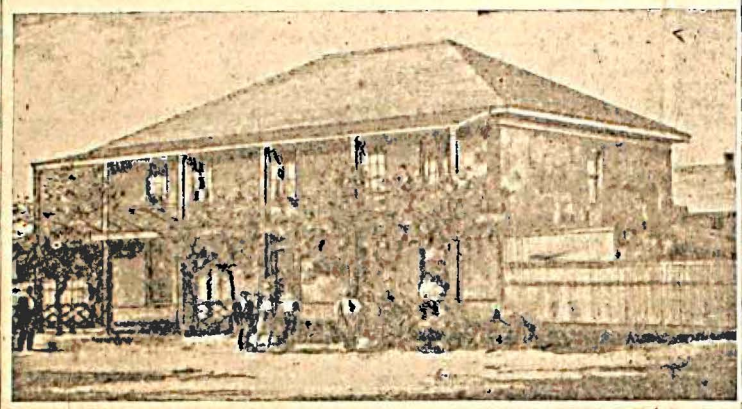
Investigating Group Hears Councliman Dail

McMahan Opening Is Gala Event



The Luis Rose building (above) which was erected early in 1800 on the north side of the plaza in Old San Diego, was the meeting place of the first Masonic Lodge in San Diego, and, printing office of San Diego's first newspaper, the San Diego Herald, Judson Ames, editor and publisher from 1851 to 1861.

Opening festivities get under way Friday at 9 o'clock when McMahan's open their doors for the first time in Lemon Grove. On hand will be television and movie cowboy star Monte Hall to lend to the event.

According to Bud Stewart, store manager, between 4 and 5 thousand persons are expected to take part in the two day celebration.

Free coffee and cake is being thoughtfully provided for visitors. Attractive bud vases and tournament type yo-yos will be given to ladies and children respectively.

Door prize drawings will be held for some major gifts which will be presented by Monte Hall. A television set, a range and a radio will be drawn for.

Demonstrators will be on hand to show the operation of most of McMahan's major appliance lines.

The store, formerly occupied by Dail's, has been completely redecorated. New carpet and lighting has also been added.

Merchandise for the new store was purchased expressly for that purpose at recent furniture market. "It's all fall merchandise, up-to-the-minute and uncrated for the first time," store officials pointed out.

A special purchase of G. E. wringer type washers at an unusual low price has been acquired for the opening.

The Fact-Finding Committee of the Lemon Grove Civic Investigation group, in a meeting Monday night at the Golden Ave. school, heard progress reports submitted by the committeenmen, and were visited by Councilman Charles Dail who acted as guest speaker.

The San Diego councilman, commenting on the activities of the committee so far congratulated committeemen by saying, "You are doing a very fine job."

Speaking to the group, near the close of the session, Dail told the members that the procedure being used to deem the best possible political status for the future of this community, "is an excellent plan of intelligent thinking."

An experienced organizer, long having interest in the development of community affairs, Mr. Dail cautioned the committee with some of the obstacles that must be faced, which have presented themselves to other communities, and areas, in somewhat similar positions.

Dail said that he felt that the keen interest shown throughout the area in the work of the committee was very commendable and demonstrated the fact that whatever the end result of the commitees findings would be, it certainly would be the most logical, and popular, decision that is available.

Mr. Dail briefly summarized the problems of areas within the city of San Diego and how they were met. He also mentioned that although the problems that face Lemon Grove are many, they will not all end regardless of any move that may be contemplated; incorporation or annexation. As an example of this the councilman cited some of the difficulties facing the city of San Diego which has problems ranging "from water to garbage collection."

Public Hearings To Be Held

Most of the business of the meeting was concerned with the submission of preliminary reports of sub-committees, which as was reported a few weeks ago, were assigned specific tasks of study and investigation. "The ground has been broken towards getting underway full steam," John Dail, president of the group stated. Now that the sub-committees have received their assignments and have begun preliminary work, complete investigation is now under way.

It was decided by a resolution adopted by the committee, that each sub-committee, during its investigation of whatever subject has been assigned to it, is to hold open forums, and public hearings in order to fulfill its task. While the fact-finding group is relatively small, it must be so in order to function efficiently and effectively commented Dail. After the routine work has been accomplished, full open meetings of the entire Lemon Grove Investigation Committee will be held in order that the entire area may know first hand what results have been accomplished by the work horse committees.

It was stressed at Monday night's meeting that the fact-finding board wil make no decisions or obligations for which the entire area may be responsible. This is to be done only at the larger community meetings following distribution of the material and facts garnered.

Mayor Nagle of La Mesa will be invited to speak before the next meeting of the fact-finding body to familiarize the group with the general idea of city government as practiced in La Mesa. A date for this next meeting is only tentative, and will be announced later, according to the secretary of the committee.

Air Warning Sirens Stir L. G. Residents

Air raid warning sirens kept Review telephones ringing last week as tests were conducted with various types of warning equipment.

Distracted housewives, for the most part, called to ask "What the heck?"

Lester Wadsworth, assistant director of Civil Defense and Disaster Organization, who maintains offices at 3146 School Lane here in Lemon Grove said that the tests would determine what formula would be adopted for use across the entire county.

Sirens are mounted on trucks and moved from spot to spot in an effort to see what type of equipment gives the widest coverage. Hills and valleys in the Grove area are posing some knotty problems at present according to Wadsworth, but these are expected to be ironed out after a couple more tests.

Sirens under test range from 7½ horsepower to 40 horsepower.

Haislip's Vacation Near Quake Center

The earthquake which damaged Tehachapi came as a dramatic climax to the vacation of a Lemon Grove business, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haislip, operators of Haislap's Pharmacy.

They were at Pismo Beach, near the violent center, when the quake came. "The earth's movement was so strong that it awoke me from a sound sleep almost immediately. We were on the ground floor of a two story motel and my first concern was whether or not the building would come down on us. After the quake started visualizing thousands of bottles shaken off the shelves on my stores, if the quake ran as far south as Lemon Grove."

Attempting to get more information by radio, Mr. Haislap said that communications were "confused and incomplete" during the early morning hours. Enroute home, later in the morning, first reports that there was no reported damage in the county came.

Youth Center Dance Set For August 9th

The first dance of the new Lemon Grove Youth Center will be held Saturday August 9th it was announced this week by the Center Control Board.

The dance is open to the public and is for adults and teenagers alike. Income from the dance will go into a fund to operate the center. The Pow-wow fund, it was pointed out, must be used for equipment.

Door prizes will be given. Refreshments will be served. Tickets are on sale at various stores in the Grove. Exact information of sales locations can be obtained by calling H9-1171.

Verbal Blows In Lions-Kiwanis Contest

Climax to pre-game activities of the August 10th baseball contest between Lemon Grove Kiwanis and Lions were reached this week when Lion Grant Hadley announced that they had asked Cub Scout pack 8 to play the first inning against the Kiwanis team.

"We'll murder 'em," Hadley said. "If we didn't think the Kiwanis team would be a push-over we wouldn't run in the Cubs."

Desmond Cole of the Cub Pack looked over the opposing lineup and said he was good for "two homers" the first inning.

The game will be played at 4 p. m. on the fateful August 10th day at the Lemon Grove School baseball field. Proceeds from the game, and from a taco dinner will go to purchase band uniforms for Grove Elementary School students.

Other activity concerning the game consisted of Bob Schniek, a Lion team member taking off for Canada until the game is over. Hadley is scheduled to follow him next week. Dr. Jim White, Kiwanis team mainstay, said that Hadley is leaving in self-defense. "We've got Chan Mason coming back this week." Dr. White said: "This should increase our chances several percentage points."

Bob Von Willer, a Lion player, is reported to be on a scouting trip in the east but should return in time to take a turn at ba according to his team members.

Kiwanis Jack Dail, Bob Browne, Russell Harmon, Ray Carmody and others have been watching Coast League basebal on television to improve their form.

What is needed most to make this forthcoming hard-fought contest a success is spectators, both clubs agree. The date is one week from Sunday at 4 p.m.

Slight Tax Rate Reduction Possible

A budget hearing is scheduled for August 7th at 7:30 p. m. in the offices of the Lemon Grove School District at 3202 Kempf Street. Interested citizens are welcome to attend. The budget is higher than last year according to school officials for the following reasons: The budget is planned to accommodate an increase in enrollment of 350 pupils — 350 pupils make up a normal ten room school. All their supplies, transportation, additional teaching personnel, is added cost over last year. All teachers and school employees were granted an approximate 10% salary increase to make salaries comparable with other districts. Costs of supplies and equipment, all services, have increased during the past year. In view of all these factors, the "per pupil" cost of operating the Lemon Grove School District was among the lowest of all school districts in the Grossmont area.

While the budget is bigger, the tax rate will not increase and may show a slight reduction in tax rates. The Lemon Grove School District is making every attempt to supplement local funds for support of the schools by securing funds from State and Federal sources. $21,000 was obtained during the past year from the Federal government to assist with the operation of federally connected children. In addition to that, the school district received notification this week from Clinton D. McKinnon that an allocation of funds for school building construction had been granted the Lemon Grove School District, in the amount of $435,000. These funds will not be forthcoming until the plans for the building project are submitted and approved by the Federal government. The Lemon Grove School District intends to use these funds, pending this approval, for the completion of the proposed Junior High.

New Paint On Traffic Lanes

New paint for pedestrian crossing lanes were painted in the Grove this week. The lines are wider and easier to see.

Pedestrians were having the same trouble at the busy Broadway and Imperial intersection however, namely, ducking fast moving vehicles.

Who's Who in Lemon Grove

This will introduce Beverly Henderson, the newest addition to contributors of the Review. Beverly will write a weekly column having to do with teenagers of the Grove. Most important phase of the weekly features will deal with, "what are you going to do after graduation?"

This, and other pertinent material will be published every week. The first of the series was published last week.

Beverly is sixteen. A pleasant, round faced miss with a high interest in journalism, she has other accomplishments than that of columnist.

She has been studying voice for the past six years. Jack Epstein, nationally noted vocalist and presently a leading San Diego voice teacher has publicly stated that Beverly's ability indicates that she should study in Italy for eventual Metropolitan Opera roles.

While voice is her favorite endeavor she paints, mostly flowers, has a flair for fashion designing, and her ability to write can best be judged by what she turns out for the Review.

At present she is planning to enter a contest for a $2,000 Atwater Kent scholarship which will further her singing ambitions.

The Review column "Teener of the Week" will not always be kind to subjects.

"I think we ought to be fair in our study of the personalities of the kids we write about," she opines. Beverly, who resides at 8102 Center, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Henderson. She is a senior at Helix, has five brothers and one sister and likes to dance.

The Review is pleased to present this new feature in the interest of letting the youngsters and the oldsters know one another a little better.

Nobody, but nobody, has it so good as the hundreds of foreign employees of the United Nations who live in the 685-apartment "world community" built for their residence in New York.

Taxes? Taxes are a laugh to them. Benevolent America excuses them from paying U. S. taxes. Inflation? Inflationary prices aren't so hard to meet—when you are tax free. Anyway, inflation is justified, in their eyes, because it has been spurred by the lavish flow of U. S. gift dough to the countries these U. N. workers come from—including the dough for their salaries.

Inflation seemed justified, that is, until just the other day — when it entered their lives in form of rent increases laid on the 685-apartment paradise. They were shocked. How could Uncle Sam, who is so kind to outland moochers, do this to them?

The facts of life came hard: Uncle Sam didn't build those apartments. That was done by some savings banks, which are responsible to their depositors for safeguarding funds and earning interest on them. Giving away taxpayers' money may make friends for Uncle Sam, but bankers careless with their depositors money would make jail.

Our U. N. friends shouldn't sulk long. They've still got their tax-free handouts. What's a little rent hike? They've never had it so good.

Nan Merriman Next On Symphony Card

Pretty Nan Merriman, American-born and trained mezzo-soprano, will appear in concert with the San Diego Summer Symphony next Tuesday night in Balboa Park Bowl.

The orchestra will be under direction of Dr. Fabien Sevitzky, who is conductor and musical director of the organization for the fourth straight year. The orchestra's portion of the program will include: Gershwin's "American in Paris" and Bach's Toccato and Fugue in D Minor, as transcribed by Sevitzky.

Miss Merriman, who has won a national following through frequent radio and concert appearances, will sing two of her most popular selections. They will be "El Amor Brujo," by de Falla, and "O Mio Fernando," from Donisetti's "La Favorite." Robert Gerle, the orchestra's concert master ,will play Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto.

by LYTLE HULL

THE AMBITIONS of our labor leaders seem limitless. Their intent appears obvious: by forcing the union shop upon the American worker, these dictators would make it impossible for any free worker to hold a job in unionized industries. When this is accomplished they will double their efforts to unionize the free workers in all lines of industries, business, farming and government. Once they "get the ball rolling" they can probably accomplish this.

Then what? With 50 or 60 million members plus wives they can dictate to any one running for local or national office, just what his policies are to be. In fact they can legally take over our government and pass laws to nationalize our sources of production. This they accomplish in England and in five years time destroyed the economy of that nation and impoverished its people. Less ambitious men might have pulled England out of the hole but those who rise too suddenly seem nearly always to succumb to the bait of personal aggrandizement —and "the public be damned."

Haven't we enough dangerous external troubles without being threatened with economic destruction at the hands of a few men whose power over the rest of us has reached alarming proportions?

There are ways to contain the selfish plans of these labor leaders. The most effective would be to pass laws forbidding industry-wide bargaining and the power to force free workers by hook or crook into the unions. The Taft-Hartley law checked these leaders to some extent, but if it is not invoked by the President, of what use is it? If that law yere invoked in the steel strike the workers would have the right to vote upon whether or not to continue that destructive stoppage. Our bet is that the vote would be overwhelming to go back to work. These men don't want a union shop, and they do want their wages and the chance to help our men in Korea whose position is going to be endangered if the strike continues.

Let's hope it is over by the time this reaches the press.

The Help of a Wife

TOP SERGEANT Sam A. Chambers, Oklahoma City, Okla., says that he discovered what is the most important thing in life to a man. He doesn't worry about the little troubles that come into his daily life; he just does the best he can with them, holding to a deep abiding faith in God and believing in his own ability to look out for himself and his family.

Not that he thinks himself perfect; not that he doesn't often fall far short of his aims; not that he doesn't fail woefully at times. But he tries to practice the rules of Christian living as laid down by what he terms "the world's only perfectionist," Jesus Christ. He pays his debts, tries to keep on good terms with his neighbors, and to give the best in him to his job. And by the law of average, he usually "gets his" and he refuses to worry.

Carnegie

Now, what do you think is the one outstanding contribution to his lack of worry? It is cheerful, helpful Mrs. Sam Chambers. When Sam is faced with a problem, he doesn't have to fight it topped with a wife's antagonism and derision. His wife believes in him, knows he will win, or if by some chance he doesn't, she knows he will do even better next time, and usually he does. Two of them to face his problems, not one fighter plus a bitter discouraging opponent.

So, says Sam, he has learned that the most important thing in the world to a man is his family, and their attitude toward him. If his wife and two little girls continue to think well of him, he will always be inspired to do his best. If they think he is a pretty fine fellow, it may keep him on his toes, but he's going to aim mighty hard at being what they think he is.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Despite the humid heat of summertime Washington, a chill wind blows off the Potomac into OPS, the Office of Price Stabilization, better known as the Office Plenty Screwy.

In closing up business for the session, Congress handed the Office Plenty Screwy a $43 million cut in its budget. $103 million was requested.

More than half of the 17,000 people employed, and it is to be noted the word "employed" is used instead of "working" are in the the process of dismissal, it is announced.

But apparently none of the geniuses that have sparked the Office Plenty Screwy to the heights of ridiculousness will walk the plank.

A curious situation, but with a cut in funds of 40%, approximately 55% of the OPS employees will be dismissed.

Simple arithmetic indicates dismissals will be among the lower paid clerical workers, leaving intact in seats of upholstered leather chairs, the high paid brains of the Office Plenty Screwy.

* * *

U. S. taxpayers will still pay plenty to keep over-stuffed chairs in top OPS offices filled.

Consider 95,000 American families with three children and annual incomes of $5,000 each. Each of those families have income for deductions of $632 per year. Thus all income tax paid by 95,000 families will just pay for the Office Plenty Screwy.

In the meantime, MSA, Marshall Plan successors continues to shovel out American taxes at an unprecedented rate. In three consecutive days, covered by MSA Bulletin Nos. 123, 124 and 125, a total of $22,872,000 was given away, or an average of $7,624,000 per day, about the daily average so far this year.

Every day a whole year's income tax from 12,000 families with three children and incomes of $5,000 are given away.

The excuse given is defense.

Yet just one item was $500,000 worth of high priced coffee given to Greece.

The blue print of the job needed from individual citizens to prevent national bankruptcy was fairly well revealed in Chicago. The democratic party is committed to continuance of futile give-away programs, and the GOP platform also calls for the continuance of "foreign aid" which covers such items as coffee and tobacco.

So far the only prominent voice heard condemning this waste of U. S. taxes is that of Herbert Hoover. Little, if any, heed is paid to his warnings, in either party.

Thus it becomes apparent that if the American people are to get out of the mire of waste and inflation, they must pull themselves up by the bootstraps.

It does not appear that the leaders of either political party are going to tackle the job.

FARM NEWS

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE

THE FARMERS CORNER

SHASTA LAKE OVERFLOWS

Last winter's snowfall has filled Shasta Lake to the brim and for the first time since storage began over eight years ago, water flows over the top of Shasta Dam. A tremendous reservoir of water, 1,466 billion gallons, has been conserved for power generation, agricultural use, and flood control. The productive capacity of the great Central Valley has been immeasurably increased.

The engineering and technical prblems involved in the completion of this great project have been and are being solved. No one doubts the capacity of our engineers and technical men to solve any problems that may arise in their special fields.

But when we turn to the management of such a project so as to render the maximum long-time benefit to the public, we have considerably less assurance. Why? What stands in the way of our making most effective use of these great proofs of human skill and ingenuity?

SEEK POLITICAL CHANGE

It is when efforts are made to manipulate for political ends the distribution of the benefits of such projects that we run into trouble.

We recall that when, over two decades ago, California first envisioned this project, there was not the slightest thought of imposing such a regulation as the 160-acre limitation. The aim was to conserve a vital natural resource and accelerate our economic development. In contrast, the purpose of such a limitation in a vast area already owned and farmed by thousands of farmers is to change the character of the agricultural community which has developed through normal growth and economic activity.

And clearly, the only means by which the purposes of the 160-acre limitation could be accomplished, would be to take from thousands f farmers rights they have legally and fairly secured and confer them upon others.

ORDERLY PROCESS BEST

Similarly, the effort to burden the people with the cost of building a power distribution system paralleling a system already serving the area is not based upon any evidence of long-time benefit to the people. If power costs, as is contended, are too high, the means exist in the Public Utilities Commission and State law for determining that fact and securing a reduction in rates.

To contend that the processes for regulation established by law are ineffective is to admit, also, that the public bureaus administerng such projects are beyond the public's control.

The public must base its decisions as to the most effective use of such great projects as the Central Valley Project upon facts and experience. When we countenance the operation of such projects upon any basis that deprives citizens of lawfully gained rights or burdens them unnecessarily, we endanger our own rights and place ourselves in jeopardy.

Orderly processes and our reliance upon experience and facts may not be sensational and dramatic, but they can be depended upon to serve us well when emergencies arise. As Ralph Waldo Emerson once observed, "Nothing astonishes men so much as common sense and plain dealing." We should try them more frequently.

NEW TRAVEL RECORDS EXPECTED THIS SUMMER

Rural highways, where vacationers spend most of their travel time, contribute the biggest share to California's traffic accident death toll, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Fewer accdents occur in rural areas than in congested cities, said Patrol officers, but high speeds and the resulting severity of accidents that do happen boost the number of fatalities.

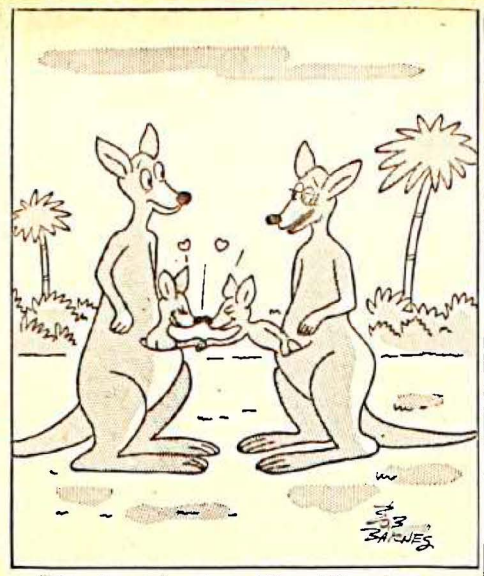
New travel records are expected to be set this summer, they added. Unless motorists remain alert and keep safety foremost in their minds, new records in higway accidents will also be set.

California offers almost every same token, the routes leading to type of scenic attracion. By the scenic spots present almost every type of traffic danger.

There are long, flat stretches where a false sense of security often dulls needed responses; steep, winding mountain roads where a slip in judgement can mean a sure plunge over a cliff; and picturesque but sometimes foghound coasts where safe speeds are vital for car control.

Traffic dangers never take a vacation, but they are minimized if and when a car is in first-class condition and is operated by a driver with a first-class attitude toward safety, said the Patrol.

"Don't let this vacation be your last one."



"I hope they won't want one of those child marriages . . I simply haven't room to be a grandmother."

"Wool Princess" To Be Chosen

California "wool princesses," girls from 14 through 22 years of age, are urged to make their own clothes during their vacation as entries in the annual "Make It Yourself With Wool" contests to be held in fifteen California cities from September 20 to October 15.

Thirty young women will be selected from these contests to compete for the state championship in San Francisco. The state winner will be elected "California Wool Princess f 1952" to represent the state at the National Contest at Chicago in December. It was announced by Mrs. J. L. Fourness of Sacramento, State Director for the California Wool Growers Association. The San Diego Contest will be held at 7:00 p. m. Thursday, October 9, at 903 6th St. Includes counties of San Diego, Imperial and Riverside.

Moisture Can Injure Plants

Plants often make themselves sick by exuding tiny droplets of water on their leaf surfaces. These help any fungus spores landing on the leaf to enter and infect the plant.

When a fungus spore lands on a leaf, a little moisture helps it germinate, like a seed, and infect the plant. For this reason, fungus diseases of plants are more of a problem in wet climates than desert regions.

Plant pathologist C. E. Yarwood, University of California College of Agriculture, recently showed a new way in which these droplets of water are formed. Bean leaves, removed from the plants, exude the water on the leaf surfaces. Internal pressures in the leaves, brought on by normal metabolic processes, force water out of the leaf to the surface. Yarwood showed that this process takes place in leaves independently of root pressure.

It has been known for some time that root pressures, as moisture is taken up from the soil, force water out onto the leaf surfaces. Rain and dew also add their bit to the water deposits on leaf surfaces.

JR. TENNIS TITLE PLAY UNDER WAY

San Diego's own Junior Tennis Championships, the tourney rapidly developing a reputation as the most hospitable net event on the Pacific Coast, will be held for the third consecutive year in Balboa Park on July 31, August 1, and 3.

While the close competiton in all junior ranks, 18-and-under down to 11-and-under, never fails to produce top-notch tennis, local officials put most of their efforts in repaying the rest of California for its hospitality to San Diego's far flung junior athletes. A tour to Starlight Opera, free housing, a tennis party with buffet dinner an orchestra for dancing, floor show, magicians, tennis, movie and other features, and donation of free theatre tickets are among the lures to prospective guests.

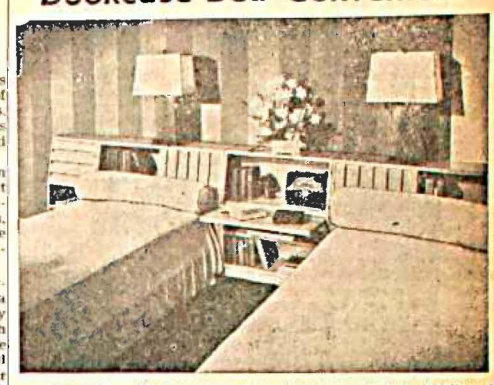
Bookcase Bed Convenient



One of the newest contemporary styles, the bookcase headboard is a space-saving, double-duty piece of furniture. It performs the function of a conventional bed headboard and also holds books, a radio, writing materials, and any other small items that a person who likes to lounge in bed might want to have conveniently at hand. Because it uses space that ordinarily is wasted, the bookcase headboard is especially suited to small rooms.

"TROPICAL ISLE" IS ORANGE FAIR THEME

Southerly California's most brilliant Floral Show will be presented as a free exhibit attraction to visitors to the 1952 Orange County Fair, Aug. 13-17, at fairgrounds on former Santa Ana Army Air Base between Santa Ana and Newport Beach.

Highliting the "Tropical Isle" theme of the dazzling Floral Show will be jungle greenery festooned with orchids and featuring hundreds of rare tropical birds and even monkeys.

Entertainment will be presented several times daily in the flower building by Hawaiian musicians and authentic hula dancers.

An exceptional array of floral exhibits are being lined up by Harry Macres, show supervisor and designer of many of Southern California's prize-winning parade floats, in cooperation with leading florists, nurserymen and associat.

A special feature of the show will be the senior and junior amateurs throughout the area.

"EASY DOES IT"

BY HELEN HALE

AN ORDINARY paint brush will do an excellent job of dusting an furniture if it has especially intricate carving and decoration on it. Keep the brush just for this purpose, and tuck it into the cleaning basket so it's handy.

To prevent gloss from coming off white paint, wash with milk and only a little bit of soap.

Every once in a while, it's a good idea to dissolve a lump of salt in the kitchen sink. It keeps it sanitary.

Go over your radiators every once in a while with an oiled cloth. This will prevent them from rusting.

If you have a bad scratch on a piece of furniture, rub a pecan meat into this, then go over the spot with furniture polish. Polish well, and you'll hardly be able to see the scratch.

Turn your rugs around a couple of times every year and you'll distribute wear evenly, and thus avoid worn spots showing.

Knives or other cutlery with wood handles should not be allowed to soak in dish water or rinsing water. This loosens them and also causes them to crack. Hang in a rack and you'll prevent nicked blades and bent points.

Ostriches Eat Into Fair's Profits

The Orange County Fair's four racing ostriches are proving to be king-sized gluttons at the training table.

The four gigantic birds, with necks as long as their legs, are now in training for the sensational and dizzy Ostrich Races which are expected to furnish spectators with plenty of thrills and spills in daily performances at the coming 1952 Orange County Fair, Aug. 13-17, inclusive, at fairgrounds on former Santa Ana Army Air Base.

Here is a sample menu for the main ostrich meal of the day:

Two chopped watermelons, a dozen sliced cantaluopes, a small patch of tomatoes, one bucket of soaked barley topped off with a small crate of California oranges for desert. The gluttons also nibble on small rocks, coarse gravel and other junk to aid digestion.

Softball Champs Play For Helix Fund

World's women's softball champions for the past two years, the Orange, Calif. Lionettes will appear in La Mesa Saturday night, Aug. 9 against the County Girls' Softball Asisociation All-Stars. Scheduled for Lyle's Field, the game will start at 8:15.

Proceeds from the contest will be turned over to the Helix High School student body. There will be no admission charge but a free will collection will be made.

Winner of Amateur Softball Association tournaments at San Antonio in 1950 and Detroit in 1951, the Lionettes are rated the top amateur women's team in the nation. Their pitching star is Bertha Ragan, whose record includes 97 no-hit, no run games, including several in tournament play.

Mrs. Cornelius to Wed Mr. E. S. Coffin

Mrs. A. F. Kerfott announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Ruth Cornelius to Everett S. Coffin of San Diego.

Mrs. Cornelius and Mr. Coffin attended State College in 1936 and are both employed at Solar.

Mrs. Cornelius resides at 8350 Alton Drive.

Announcement of the wedding date will be announced soon.

NEW WAYS TO PREPARE FRESH MOUNTAIN TROUT

Trust a fisherman (or a fisherman's wife) to discover some quick ways to give trout an intriguing flavor. Some tricks include tucking a sprig or two of fresh herbs in the cavity of trout before frying or baking, or using savory butters.

Trout right from a stream or frozen trout from a package work equally well in the recipes for platter baked or oven barbecued trout. The sharp flavor of Parmesan cheese gives a tangy crumb coating to a batch of trout. Dip trout in cream and roll in a mixture of crumbs, cheese, and parsley; and fry, broil, or bake. Garnish with grilled tomatoes and a sprinkling of minced chives.

Fiestabahia Aquacade Sched. For August

San Diego's major water show of the season, the Fiestabahia Swimming and Diving Championships and Aquacade, will be held on August 15 and 16 at the Mission Beach plunge, it was announced this week by the swimming committee of the Southwest Pacific Border Association A.A.U.

More than 200 men and women entries, several of whom are now competing in the Olympic Games at Helsinki, are expected to fire away at swimming records and to compete for highest honors in diving.

Flora Blake Recuperating

Flora Blake, who with her husband Stan, operates the Greeting Shop in the Grove's business center is up and around after a five week's illness.

Not yet able to return to the shop she did however make a couple of brief trips there by auto during the week-end.

Local shoppers have missed the similing contenance of this pleasant woman.

Two Grove Begonia Gardens To Be Toured

Two Lemon Iath houses are to be inspected by the San Diego Begonia Society. They are the homes of Dr. Roy E. Vermillion and George E. Leonard of 8422 Golden Avenue and 8432 Golden Avenue respectively.

The inspection is planned for Sunday, August 10th, from 2 to 6 p. m. and all interested persons may make the tour.

Local Health Workshop Opens Monday

More than 60 Southern California school administrators, teachers, nurses, and health educators are scheduled to go to work Monday at the big, first annual Health Education Workshop at San Diego State College.

Made possible through a grant from the San Diego County tuberculosis and Health Association, the workshop will continue through August 15.

Guided by Dr. Fen Miller, Ph.D., professor of physical education at UCLA, participants will work on problems or projects pertaining to school or community health education. Many participants, subject to the approval of the workshop consultants, will work on individual projects designed to improve their teaching methods or teaching materials.

Pointing out that the workshop is open to everyone interested in health education, a spokesman for the workshop yesterday said that a large number of participants will represent the county-wide P. T. A. organization and are expected to bring the "parents' approach to community health education" to the session.

Select Your Favorite Asphalt Shingle Shape

In selecting new roofing material, don't overlook the possibility of enhancing the appearance of your house with shingles of distinctive shape.

Asphalt shingles, the standard kind of home roofing, are made in several shapes. Square butt shingles are the style usually seen. There are various interlocking shingles in individualistic, functional designs. Other asphalt shingles are made so that the exposed part of each shingle is hexagonal.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY HISTORICAL SCRAPBOOK

Compiled from the historical records of UNION TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY • SAN DIEGO

When the Allyn building, at the southwest corner of Fifth and E Street, was opened in June, 1889, it was proclaimed as one of the most "elegant" establishments in San Diego. The store was fitted out with lofty ceilings, hardwood counters and shelves, silver mounted showcases, and "all modern devices to display goods." The initial merchants occupying the premises included Gaffagan & Campbell's "Model Gentlemen's Furnishing House of Southern California" (a clothing store), a dentist, a real estate broker, a doctor and a tailor.

This photograph, from the historical files of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company, shows the building as it appeared in 1904. The clothing store was still in operation — though under different management—while a bakery had supplanted the tailor's shop.

The top floor of the Allyn Block, with its pretentious ramparts, later was removed, and the structure underwent a vigorous face-lifting. Today, 63 years after its opening, the Allyn Block is occupied by a clothing firm and other retail establishments.

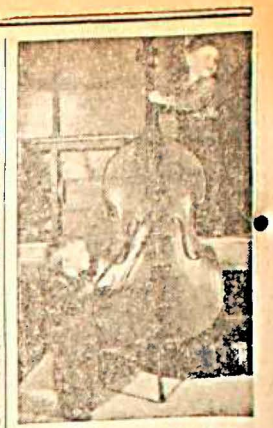
Christian Science Sermon Explains Practical Truth

The query "What is Truth?" is answered by the evidence of God's power in healing the sick, supporting the needy, and reforming the sinner, points out the Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

This declaration from I John (5:6) is the Golden Text, "It is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth."

Matthew's Gospel records (4:23; 5:1,2,6), "Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people . . . And . . . his disciples came unto him:



SOLUTION . . . The Berg brothers at the National Music Camp, Interlochen, Mich., have solved the problem of reaching both ends of the big fiddle.

And he . . . taught them, saying, . . . Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled."

LADY-LIKE

In a large store a man who had gone to make a purchase noticed that nylons were being sold in one of the departments, and decided to get a pair for his wife. He was a dignified, middle-aged man and soon found himself buffeted by a crowd of frantic women, also after nylons.

He stood it as long as he could, then, with head lowered and arms outstretched, he barged through the crowd towards the

MRS. CALEB CARUTHERS over at Trotting Ridge swears by Doc Shakewell. He told her she was allergic to dishwater.

Mrs. Caruthers says she is going to have to take little Cowbelle Caruthers to one of those psychiatrists. The child has what Doc calls a fixation—she is all tied up inside and out. Ridem Cowpoke made a personal appearance at the Savoy Saturday and lassoed several of the kids and let them keep the ropes for souvenirs. Cowbelle won't let anyone remove the rope from around her shoulders. Mr. Caruthers wants to leave her tied up the rest of the summer.
